

I am an avid listener of K-LOVE, a national Christian radio station, which uses FM translators. I understand if the FCC allows LPFM to enter the market translators will be taken off of the air. This action would be a disservice to the communities served by K-LOVE. K-LOVE provides family friendly programming that is positive and encouraging. It would not be in the Publics interest to see K-LOVE lose its ability to transmit over translators.